Increasingly, more and more small and start-up agencies are joining The Travel Agent Next Door, the rapidly growing network of over 300 home based agents, associates and agencies. The company's program offers member agents and agencies benefits and opportunities that are unmatched by any other group in Canada. We asked some of the agencies who have joined The Travel Agent Next Door why they chose to join. This week, we are featuring the responses from Buffy Robblee of The Travel Agent Next Door, Chatham-Kent, Ontario on why she chose The Travel Agent Next Door to support her travel agency.

- 1 My decision to join The Travel Agent Next Door was quite simple --the people - the owner's experience and credibility in the industry and the team he has attracted.
- 2 The enormous amount of support staff
- 3 The visibility nationwide of this company
- 4 Their very low and reasonable fees
- 5 Their recognition of the productivity of their agencies and agents, however large or small!
